Chair's Comments: Joan Hagedorn

Joan called the meeting to order. The Epiphany staff is updating parishioners data including email addresses. We are going to have Sages members review their personal contact information for correctness at the May Gathering. There will be no Sages meeting in June because of Fathers' Day. We will still have our Core meeting in June on the 12th at 10 A.M. to work on plans for the coming year. The position of Program Chair is open. Mary Downs will take Julie Stuart's place in assisting the Sages. We voted not to put out a donation basket for the May Sages Gathering. Joan announced that the church will have a quarterly newsletter.

Secretary's Report: Shirley Stivers

SAGES FALL LUNCHEON

Mark your calendar for our Fall Luncheon at Bravo's Restaurant on September 26 at 11:45. We will have a delicious Italian buffet which will include three entrees, two salads, and a mixture of vegetables.

Author Sue Kelly Ballard from Elizabethtown will entertain us with stories about Rebecca Boone, wife of the famous Daniel Boone. What was Rebecca's daily life like when her husband was away on the frontier? From the title of her book, My Blessed, Wretched Life: Rebecca Boone's Story, we imagine that her life was conflicted.

To join the Sages in this fun event, please contact Joan Hagedorn at 759-2766 or joanhagedorn46@gmail.com or sign up at a Sages monthly Gathering. The buffet will be 18.95 plus tax and tip

SAGES JULY GATHERING

Rose Island, near Charlestown, Indiana, is not an island but a peninsula. That's not the only misnomer. The place may not be all roses. Walk Trail Three across the old bridge on a crisp, cool morning and you may not be alone. You may be strolling with the shadows of the past. And what or who are these ghostly shadows? Find out from historian and author Terry Chambers at our Sages Gathering on July 21 after the 11:30 Mass. The story of Rose Island will amaze you. All members of Epiphany over 50 are invited to attend. A light lunch will be served.
