Mission Statement

SEL's (Singles Explore Life) mission is to provide time for those singles over forty (40) years of age to come together to meet other people, to socialize, to explore areas of enhancement for our personal lives, and to seek God within us, exploring that relationship with God and God's likeness in us all. We also strive to become more aware of persons traveling similar roads and to seek connections with them should that be feasible.

On Tuesday, February 24th, at 5pm, the SEL Dinner Club will gather at the Corner Cafe (9307 New LaGrange Road). Corner Cafe is a popular Italian and American restaurant known for its diverse menu including pizza, pasta, and regional specialties like shrimp and grits. It has a full bar and is accompanied by a cozy atmosphere. The restaurant has a warm and inviting vibe, attentive staff, and is praised for its generous portions, flavorful dishes, and desserts. Corner Cafe will do separate checks for our large group, but requests us to pay in cash (if possible) to help the waitress. Please contact Janet Mann (553-1444) for a reservation. Hope to see you there! 🍷

On Tuesday, March 17, the SEL Book Club will discuss Theo of Golden by Allen Levi.

NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER

One spring morning, a stranger arrives in the small southern city of Golden. No one knows where he has come from...or why...

His name is Theo. And he asks a lot more questions than he answers.

Theo visits the local coffeehouse, where ninety-two pencil portraits hang on the walls, portraits of the people of Golden done by a local artist. He begins purchasing them, one at a time, and putting them back in the hands of their “rightful owners.” With each exchange, a story is told, a friendship born, and a life altered.

A story of giving and receiving, of seeing and being seen, Theo of Golden is a beautifully crafted novel about the power of creative generosity, the importance of wonder to a purposeful life, and the invisible threads of kindness that bind us to one another.

Thanks to the nine members who attended our January Book Club Meeting. We had a great discussion participated by all!
